

Linda joined KI as a volunteer and following an enjoyable experience, one thing led to another and he has been with Kwakha Indvodza as a finance and operations manager since 2017. Linda is very passionate about the KI vision which he believes has contributed to the development and nurturing of many young boys in his community and in the country. When not working with numbers, Linda enjoys watching series. He lives by the words “Pursue honour, respect and dignity”